Alan Blakney Memorial Scholarship

* indicates a required field

About the Scholarship

On 30 January 2008, Lorna Waller donated to the University of Melbourne for the purpose of setting up a perpetual trust to be named The Alan Blakney Memorial Fund. The net income from this fund is to be used to provide one or more scholarships for students from disadvantaged rural backgrounds to study at Dookie College.

The donation memorialises the donor's brother, the late Alan Cecil Blakney, DFC, who graduated from Dookie Agricultural College in 1940. Alan served as a navigator in the Royal Australian Air Force during the Second World War, and was attached to the Mosquito Pathfinder Squadron 571 with the Royal Air Force; in December 1945 he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. On his return to Australia Alan farmed initially in Tasmania, and later in Western Australia. He died on 23 March 1983.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this Scholarship you must:

- be enrolled in full-time study in the Bachelor of Agriculture; and
- be enrolled or planning to enrol in the Dookie Semester option in your second or third year (in year of bestowal) and
- be enrolled in at least 37.5 points at the Dookie campus; or
- You are also eligible if you are studying at Dookie in your third year (at least 25 points); and
- demonstrate financial need (preference); and
- meet the rural student classification

Selection Criteria

Selection will be based on:

- Submission of a statement demonstrating the educational benefit of studying at Dookie
- Students should provide details of financial need in their statement. Supporting documentation should be provided to support the statement.

Due to the timing of this award it is not possible to use the financial need tool provided by Melbourne Scholarships. Students will be asked to provide details of financial need and this will need to be supported by evidence such as Centrelink docs or stats decs. The Faculty will then use our Graduate Access bursary scoring matrix for documentation to develop a ranking for each applicant.

Students will be ranked on their statement. Preference will be given to those deemed to be in higher financial need. When determining the recipient of this scholarship the support already received, in the form of other student awards, by all eligible applicants will be taken into account.
