

Dawson Bursary 2021

Eligibility and process

Value approx. $4000

Closing Date: 5:00 pm, Sunday 7 March 2021

William Henry Dawson, of Bendigo, bequeathed funds to the University of Melbourne in 1949 for the purpose of providing a bursary in the biological sciences, with preference to be given to children of returned soldiers. Eligible students must be enrolled in a graduate research degree in the biological sciences in the Faculty of Science at the University of Melbourne.

The award may be held for two years depending on progress and continuing eligibility.

Open to students enrolled in a graduate research degree in the Faculty of Science at the University of Melbourne as of 1 January 2021 and who are undertaking research in a school / department in one of the following fields:

Anatomy, Bacteriology, Biochemistry, Botany, Genetics, Palaeontology, Pathology, Physiology, Zoology

Applicants must have been confirmed at the time applications close.

NB: students undertaking purely clinical research in Medicine are not eligible to apply.

Preference is given (but is not limited) to applicants:

- who have a parent who is a returned soldier (please include documentary evidence);
- whose financial situation, relative to other applicants, would benefit from the award of the bursary

Process

- Applicants must complete and submit this application form, confirming their eligibility and area of scientific research.
- Applicants must also apply for a Student Grant via the University of Melbourne Scholarships Office to enable a financial aid ranking.
- Both applications must be submitted by 5:00 pm, Sunday 7 March 2021

Application Checklist

Your application must include the following:

- Application for a Student Grant via the Scholarships Office, submitted by the due date
- Supervisor endorsement
- CV
- If relevant, documentary evidence of a parent's status as a returned soldier
